DECEMBER

Newsletter

On December 6th, our liturgical calendar remembered St. Nicholas. He was born in Asia Minor (the area was Greek and today is the southern coast of Turkey). From a Dutch tradition with 'Sinterklaas' the secular world knows him as Santa Claus. Regardless of how you know him, his reputation includes generosity, care for those in need and love for children.

Today, we could describe Nicholas as a next generation inheritor. His parents died when he was young during an epidemic and their wealth passed to him. Obviously, even with a young person, his parents had also passed on their values to him so that he would be prepared to receive this wealth and do good with it. Read more...
